

Overview

The Albutt Folding Fork is a true market leader for strength, design & specification. It has a host of market leading features, designed to maximise your productivity when working the clamp. Used & trusted the world over, the fork is predominantly built with high tensile steels Hardox & Strenx; strategically placed to provide the strongest tool to compliment your silage set up. Along with the highest standard specification on the market, we also offer a range of optional extras to make the Folding Fork unique to you, including work lights & name plates.

Features

- Strenx high tensile steel fork back
- 1650mm long genuine Hardox base tines
- 200 x 100mm base tine holder
- Full width base Hardox wear strip
- Hydraulic accumulator for shock protection
- Secure-lock wings for road transport
- Large visibility slots
- Open wing locator profiles
- Double side tines
- Closing rubber bump stops
- Optional work lights & custom name plate
- Wing deflector plates
- Recognised market leader

Models

Model	Open	Capacity	Weight	Tines
B922HX	12'	7.20m ³	1570 kgs	15
B924HX	14'	8.30m ³	1690 kgs	16
B926HX	16'	9.60m ³	1820 kgs	18

Albutt Ltd | UK | GL20 7AR

Tel. 01242620252

Dan Cross. 07720087264 | dan@albutt.co.uk

www.albutt.co.uk

